Columbus, O., Visited by a Disastrous Fire.

TWO THEATERS AND A HOTEL BURNED

Both Theaters Delivered of Their Audiences Without Confusion—The Hotel guests Saved Sans Baggage—One Man Burned to Death.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 25.—Fire broke out in the new Henrietta theater, corner Spring and Front streets, at 8:15 last evening, and in less than an hour and a half this elegant play house, the Chittenden hotel and Auditorium and Park theater were in ruins.

Felix Morris, in the "Paper Chase," was at the Henrietta theater, and the orchestra had just finished the overture when the manager, Albert Evans, appeared on the stage and informed the audience that there was a small blaze in the rear of the theater, and suggested that they leave the theater. As no flames were to be seen and the audience was small, they did so in order.

The members of the company were dressed for their parts, and, as they were assured the theater was fireproof, made no effort to remove their wardrobes. In a few minutes the flames, which first appeared in the large auditorium adjoining the theater and which was unfinished, broke out in the rear of the stage. Almost instantly the whole proscenium was ablaze. The members of the company fled in their stage clothes. The manager said to the United Press reporter that he had saved almost nothing.

A high wind was blowing from the west, which fanned the flames so that when the fire department arrived the theater was doomed, and the Chittenden hotel, adjoining on the east was burning.

A man, who was recognized as Andrew Armstrong, a stage hand, and who worked above the scenery, appeared at a fourth-story window of the theater and cried for help. He was told not to jump and he would be saved. He disappeared from the window and was not seen again. The walls of the theater fell in soon after.

So far as now known this was the only life lost. The guests of the Chittenden hotel had ample time to escape, but few of them saved any property. Steadily the flames worked away at the fine hotel, the fire department being apparently helpless. In an hour after the fire broke out in the Henrietta the hotel was fast falling into ruins.

Just north of the hotel, on the High-street front, stood the Park theater. Gray & Stephens, with their trained dogs and ponies, were giving an exhibition there. The curtain was suddenly rung down, and the audience was informed that the hotel adjoining was on fire. So far as the audience from being panic-stricken that they refused to go out, and demands were made that the performance proceed. They finally went out slowly. A half hour later this theater, which was a frame building, was in ruins. Here also the company lost the property but saved their animals.

The Henrietta had just entered upon its second season. This theater, the Auditorium adjoining, and the Chittenden hotel were built three years ago by Henry T. Chittenden and were owned by him. The Henrietta was supposed to be fireproof. The Park theater was owned by a stock company. The loss on the Henrietta theater and Auditorium is about $600,000; that on the Chittenden hotel, including furnishings and property contained, about $400,000 and the Park theater $100,000.

There were also in the buildings the Ohio savings bank, the Star shoe store, Rice's drug store and Goodman's clothing store. The losses on these will aggregate $50,000.

There was insurance on all the buildings and property burned, the exact amount of which could not be learned in the confusion last night.

Gov. McKinley lived at the Chittenden, but both he and Mrs. McKinley are in the east now. The private property of value that the governor had in his apartments was saved by Capt. Heistman, of the regular army, who happened to be in the hotel.

The fire destroyed the whole square bounded by High, Spring and Front streets and the first building north of Spring street. It is not known how the fire originated, but it was probably from a defective line in the theater.

The engineer of the theater, a man named Thompson, is missing, but his duties kept him in the basement. It is not likely that he has been burned. The stage of the Henrietta was one of the largest in the country, and the theater was elegant and modern in construction.

Julia Marlow opened the house the first week in September, 1893. Stewart Robinson was billed to play there next Monday night. Messrs. Dixon & Talbot, lessors of both theaters, claim that an actor named Howard, with the Felix Morris Co., has not been seen since the fire, and fear he is lost.

—There is the highest authority for the statement that shortly after his arrival in the United States from Brazil Admiral Sienstein will be given another command, equal in dignity and importance to that from which he was removed last month for saluting the rebel admiral's flag.

GREAT BILLIARDS.

The Wizard Lowers His Standard to the Young Napoleon, Who Breaks the Record.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Frankie Ives clinched the championship business in the billiard line last night at Central music hall. He broke the high-run record of 348, made by Schaefer Tuesday night, scoring in a single play 456 points. He also broke all public records for average, scoring 47-17 on the night's play of 300 points, and a grand average of 30-40-32. His remarkable performance after inferior billiard-playing puts him so far in the lead on the four nights' play that the odds are against Schaefer winning out. The aggregate score stands 3,200 for Ives and 2,460 for Schaefer, a difference of 731 points to be made up in the closing game to-night. It was a case of the pupil beating his master. The Wizard invented the anchor nurse, taught it to Ives, and the young Napoleon of billiards coolly stepped in, and beat Schaefer at his own game. The latest record-breaking run was made in the sixteenth inning, after Ives had got warmed up by touching off 74. At 40 the balls were safely anchored on the lower end rail, and Ives kept them there until he had piled up 156 on his score. Between the century marks he took a drink, and the spectators wildly applauded at brief intervals. At 444 the balls froze, but a clever masse helped him out of his difficulty. The anchor remained as secure at 456, but Ives failed to hit the first ball. He was going ahead, however, when Schaefer, who had been standing all the time anxiously waiting for the end, started forward and said with a cynical smile: "Sit down, you didn't hit the first ball." Ives made a bluff at objecting, but took a rest.

A Fatal Collision.

OLPAN, N. Y., Nov. 25.—A collision occurred yesterday morning on Keating Summit hill between a push engine and a work train on the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad, resulting in a smashup. Theodore Crane, fireman, was killed and three others injured.

DAILY REPUBLICAN.

The Debt per Family is $380—A City in the Hole

R. D. Wilson is in receipt of news paper clippings from Spokane, Wash., which tell a woeful story of the condition of that far-away city of 30,000 inhabitants. Oscar Wilson, son of Mr.
W., and his son-in-law, Henry Traubner, are residents of Spokane. I. S. Kaufman was made mayor of the town, and W. H. Acock is there; so is Frank Wine-brenner, fire chief; Logan Phillips, fire captain; George Brett, George Dodson and others whose names we can not now recall. Several Decatur parties are interested in Spokane real estate. The boom appears to have collapsed. The Spokane Review, in giving the indebtedness of the city, states that the bonded indebtedness is $700,000, street grade warrants, drawing eight per cent interest, $19,000, floating debt, $70,000, six per cent school bonds, $250,000, three fourths of county indebtedness, exclusive of new court house $135,000, grand total, $2,205,000. Based on a population of 30,000, the total indebtedness per capita is $76, or $380 per family. The gross interest charges from city debt alone is $119,200 per annum, or nearly $4 per capita. There is no work for the people and as a consequence there is general stagnation of business, and suffering for the necessities of life is general among the poorer classes. There is no prospect of work, and the telegraph tells of mob like gatherings by the people who cannot or will not leave Spokane for a season where it will at least be possible to gain a livelihood during the winter

In the Toulous country the crops have been failures and farmers and others who are in debt to merchants and agricultural dealers refuse to pay their debts.
Hundreds of farmers there would gladly sacrifice their entire crop in exchange for provisions and feed to carry their families and stock through the winter. A secret organization has been effected by which the farmers will stand together to protect their stock and lands from levy until spring comes with the hope that next year's crop will put them on their feet again. They must have extension of time and if they cannot obtain it in one way they will in another. They regret that merchants and other creditors must suffer with them, but they argue that it is better to retain their homes in the manner above outlined, than sacrifice them to gratify persistent creditors who are clamoring for assignments, mortgages and numerous preferences, to the exclusion of others to whom the farmers are justly and honestly indebted.

Unique Home Entertainment

The ladies of the Congregational church are just now engaged in almost every momentous method of raising funds for their increasing work. A short time ago one lady member gave a pound party at her home, when quite an amount was realized. Each lady has agreed to raise a certain sum. The method adopted by another member, Miss Abbie Pratt, was to have a home entertainment, and the sold just enough tickets at 20 cents each to the neighbors and friends to raise the amount desired. It required no small degree of labor and painstaking to produce the unique program. It received much applause and was as follows:

Rare Celebration Near Orleans on Thursday, Nov. 23

The golden wedding anniversary of Supervisor and Mrs. O. H. Garver, of Whitmore township, was pleasantly celebrated Thursday Nov. 23, near Orleans, by a large company of relatives, neighbors and friends. There were over 50 people present, including children and grandchildren. A splendid dinner was served to which all did full justice. The couple were married Nov. 23, 1843, at the Willis Johnson farm, and they lived for one year with the groom's father when they moved to the home place in Whitmore township. There are six children living—Mrs. George Huser, of Decatur, Mrs. O. Hirsch, of Orleans, Mrs. J. J.
Garver, of Cerro Gordo, Mrs. W. F.
Jacobs, of Decatur, Mrs. H. B. Kuhns, of Orleans, two children are dead. Mr.
Garver is well known in Decatur and throughout the county. For a number of years he has represented Whitmore township as supervisor in the county board, of which body he has been chairman. The children presented a pair of gold spectacles, Henry Cobb gave a gold thumb, and Dr. and Mrs. McBride each gave a rocking chair. Among the friends present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rad-lock, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Harrauff, Mr. and Mrs. J.
Green, Mr. and Mrs. John Strope, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oldwiler, Mr. and Mrs. T.
H. Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kuhns, Mr. and Mrs. David Runn, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Morrison, Mr. W. N. McKinley, Mr.
Daniel Good and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stare. O. H. Garver was presented with a pen by two of his brothers, John H.
Garver and David H. Garver of Cerro Gordo. Mrs. C. H. Garver got a fine silk cap given by one of her daughters.
Regrets were received from A. H. Garver of Winfield, and Mr. and Mrs. L.
Rodgers of Humbolt, Kans. and others

GIVING OUT

Natural Gas Wells in Danvers Becoming Exhausted

The forty or more families in Danvers, McLean county, who for some months past have been using natural gas for fuel, awoke this week to find the flow of gas so slight that it could not be used, and in some instances the flow had stopped altogether. The pressure for several weeks has been gradually failing in all the wells about town, but on Saturday morning it was practically shut off entirely. Some of those using it have removed the gas fixtures and are using coal or wood for fuel, while others are waiting to see if the "shut-off" is a permanent thing. It is claimed by some that when the wind is in a certain direction the flow is affected, and that in course of time will come around all right again. It has caused many people a great deal of trouble, at all events

James Whitcomb Riley

James Whitcomb Riley, the celebrated dialect poet, will visit this city on Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, and give his inimitable entertainment at the opera house. The people of our city are very fortunate in securing Mr. Riley, as he makes very few public appearances now.

It is said that he is paid by his manager a larger sum for each reading than is received by any other public man of the present day. His simple verse has won a lasting place in the hearts of old and young. To hear him read his own poems and recite his dialect anecdotes is indeed a revelation. No one can afford to miss hearing him. Mr. Riley will be assisted by Mr. Douglas Sherry

Hoss and Hoss

The reappearance of that quaint company, Willie Collier, and his excellent company, is one of the events of the season in the line of farcical entertainments.
Hoss and Hoss is still the vehicle in which this company appears and its undiminished fun, ludicrous situations and numerous specialties, will help to increase its never-failing popularity. The date for their appearance here is next Tuesday night, Nov. 28, at the Grand Opera House. The music has been rearranged by, and is now under the direction of,
Emil O. Wolff. The famous Bowery Ball, the irresistibly funny jury, and the ludicrous court room scene are still leading features of Hoss and Hoss, and while all the best of the old business has been retained, much that is new and laughable has been introduced and it is now really a new piece with an old title

A Sick Jurymen.

In the county court to-day the further consideration of the evidence connected with the $1000 claim of Felix M. Garver against the estate of David Garver had to be deferred because of the illness of Will J. Gilkeson, one of the jurymen. He arose and asked the lawyers to hasten the examination of witnesses, as he felt ill and might have to go home. It was concluded to adjourn the further hearing of evidence until Monday next. Mr. Gilkeson will probably be restored to better health by Monday.

SPRINGFIELD Journal: Among those who passed the legal examination before the appellate court was W. L. Yaney, an ambitious young colored man of this city. Mr. Yaney acquired a part of his education in the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, and the fact that he is now in a position for active practice in the courts of the state, will be a source of gratification to himself and his friends and an impetus to his race to emulate his example.

The City Bakery.

F. W. Werning is now at his old place, 517 North Morgan street, where can be had the largest and best loaf of bread for five cents in the city. Also cakes and pies.

Sales of Real Estate.

Willie A. Price to Jacob Budd, two large lots on South Franklin street, near Oglesby street—$2,500.

John S. Dempsey to Mary A. Dempsey, 80 feet on South Broadway—$1,500.

J. B. Barnes, Wabash Master Mechanic, Has More Bad Luck.

Springfield Journal, 25th.

That misfortune never comes singly finds another verification in the case of Mr. J. B. Barnes. Nine weeks ago last Monday Mr. Barnes was out riding horseback with Mrs. Barnes, when the latter's horse suddenly gave a vicious kick, striking Mr. Barnes' left leg and inflicting a serious fracture. For weeks he was confined to his room on account of the fracture knitting slowly. Within the past few days he was improving rapidly, and was looking forward with boyish delight to the privilege of again being able to use the limbs in a few days. This hope was cruelly shattered yesterday evening, between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock. Mr. Barnes was in his room at the Leland and had raised up in his chair and by an unfortunate circumstance imposed too great a weight on the weak member, with the result that another fracture was caused in the same place. Mr. Barnes has the sympathy of many friends, but unfortunately this will not materially help the injured leg.

INTERMENT AT GREENWOOD.

Burial: This Forenoon of the Late George Richardson.

The funeral of the late George Richardson took place this morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence, Rev. Wm. McKown officiating. The family reside at 1517 North Calhoun street. The house was filled by the large attendance of friends, and the floral offerings were very beautiful. The honorary pallbearers were the following druggists: Messrs. Neisler, Blaine, Dawson Wood, Armstrong, Irwin, Shilling, Hilderbrandt, Lee and Dixon. The active pallbearers were Horace Davenport, Mike Schanial, J. M. Dickens, M. Pickle, W. O. Crossman and C. J. Manson. Interment in Greenwood cemetery.

Death of Judge O'Malley.

Dr. E. W. Moore has received information of the death of Judge Harvey K. S. O'Malley, which occurred at Los Angeles, Cal., Monday, November 20, 1893. He was stricken with paralysis on the 7th of the month while on the streets and lingered until death came. He was a little past 70 years of age at the time of his death, having been born March 5, 1823, at Elkton, Ky. He was prominent in central Illinois in the days of Lincoln and Douglas, and was well known to many of the older citizens of Decatur. He went to Los Angeles in 1889.

Card of Thanks.

The bereaved widow of the late E. A. Glidden desires in this manner to express her profound appreciation of the many favors and kindnesses of her neighbors during the late illness and death of her husband.

Last night the young people of Grace M. E. church gave a pleasing entertainment at the home of Rev. H. H. Oneal. There was a conversational contest on current topics, and the vote was a draw between C. W. Riley and Miss Willie Robertson. A recitation by Miss Robertson and a vocal solo by Mrs. W. J. Huff were given, besides other musical selections. Light refreshments were served. It is the intention to give similar entertainments for the benefit of the church every two weeks. The following are the members of the committee who had the affair in charge: Mrs. H. H. Oneal, Mrs. D. C. Corley, Mrs. C. C. Dimock, Mrs. T. J. Wimmer, W. L. Shellabarger, J. W. Crane and C. M. Riley.

YESTERDAY Louis A. Hilliard, the self-confessed embezzling cashier of the Chicago Tribune company, was sentenced to four years in the Chester penitentiary by Judge Brentano. Hilliard entered a plea of guilty as charged. State's Attorney Kern placed R. W. Patterson, jr., of the Tribune on the stand to establish a case. Mr. Patterson said that Hilliard had been employed as cashier of the Tribune company, and the implicit confidence imposed in him made it possible for him to embezzle $14,907. Hilliard fled to Spain after he concluded that exposure was sure, but he was run down and caught by a detective.

MR. A. B. JOWETT, a native African, and grandson of a chief of the Mendi tribe, will lecture in the U. B. church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The lecturer will give a description of the manners and customs of his people, also of the progress of civilization. He will repeat passages of scripture, including the Lord's prayer, in the Mendi language.

THE new I. D. & W. time card goes into effect Sunday. Following are the changes: Local freight which arrived at 6 a. m., will arrive at 2 a. m.; passenger No. 2 now leaving at 11:15 a. m., will leave at 11:30 a. m.; passenger No. 1 now arriving at 2:35 p. m., will leave at 2:50 p. m. The Tuscola accommodation which now leaves at 4:20 p. m., will go at 4 p. m.

The department was called out last evening by an alarm of fire caused by a little scorch at the home of A. T. Grist, 136 East Jefferson street. Live coals in ashes set fire to the side of the house. John DeFratus, a neighbor, and Mrs. Grist put the fire out before the firemen arrived at the scene. Damage slight.

The smallest "cat-bill" is large enough to show that the blood needs purifying—a warning which, if unheeded, may result, not in more boils, but in something very much worse. Avert the danger in time by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Cured others, will cure you.

THE Ladies Aid Society of the First M. E. church, will give a sale of fancy and useful articles on Thursday evening, Dec. 7. Refreshments will be served. The sale will continue through Friday, when dinner and supper will be served.

At the Christian Church.
Elder Geo. F. Hall, of the North Side Christian church, Chicago, Ill., will occupy the pulpit of the Christian church, Sunday, both morning and evening. Mr. Hall comes well recommended. He is a young man of fine appearance and good address. He is an author of some note. His latest book entitled "Plain Points on Personal Purity" has styled him one of America's most brilliant young men, equally gifted as preacher, author and revivalist. He will preach on the following subjects: Sunday morning, "Prayer;" Sunday evening, "The Five Kingdoms" (illustrated); Monday evening, "The Fall of Babylon." Those who wish a treat should not fail to hear the Rev. Hall on the above subjects. Mr. Hall comes to Decatur with the view of locating with the Christian church. All welcome to Decatur and hope the church will be successful in securing him as their pastor.

Entertained Her Class.
Miss Lyde Newman entertained the members of her Sunday School class last evening at the First M. E. church. It is class No. 9, and the occasion was in honor of the fourth anniversary of their organization. The programme was as follows: Address, Rev. D. F. Howe; Silver Star Quartette; Messrs. Fred Lee, Lou Montgomery, Elmer Sinks and Charles Chamberlain.

Piano Duet, Misses Lillie and Jennie Frew Vocal Solo, Miss Jennie Frew Accompanied by Miss May Kilgore.

After the programme, refreshments were served to about 200 guests. Beautiful chrysanthemums were given as souvenirs. Miss Lyde Newman is teacher of the class. The following are the members: Arthur Gay, Emory Ward, Nile Russell, A. Diller, Wilbur Davis, Archie Davis, Charlie Wise, Frank Wise, Hiram Charnock, Guy Conklin and Frank Dixon.

A Shooting Contest.
Captain A. H. Bogardus, of Lincoln, who has a shooting school in Decatur, and Thomas Hall, of Lacon, will shoot for $250 a side at the fair grounds Thanksgiving day. The contest will be at 100 yards each, and under the new rule any pigeon dropping within a ten yard circle will be counted as lost. Only one barrel of the guns will be used. Bogardus and Hall shot in Chicago several weeks ago, the contest resulting in a tie. Everybody knows Captain Bogardus and his wonderful skill with the gun, but Hall is not known outside of Sangamon county. He is one of the best hunters in the country. He has shot but few matches, but has made a good showing in the few he has shot.

The D. H. S. Literary Society.
The literary society had their regular meeting at the High School building last night. There was a reading by James Grubbs. The question for debate was, "Resolved, That the Railroads Should be Controlled by the Government." The speakers for the affirmative were Will Corman and Alva Johnson; negative, Byron Bramble and Fred Depew. Mr. Peters, Nathan Bourne and Edgar Herman were the judges. The decision was in favor of the negative. Owing to the vacation the last of next week, no meeting will be held. One new member, Wayne Williams, was admitted. An interesting feature of the next meeting will be a newspaper by Ferdinand Depew.

Only 10 Per Cent.
The World's Fair funds in Treasurer Seeberger's strong box get a little lower every day. Two weeks ago he reported a balance of $2,200,000. One of his statements to President Higginbotham two days ago showed this amount had been reduced to $1,939,005. The gate receipts are dwindling to something like $125 a day. By the time the affairs of the Exposition company are wound up it is believed there will remain not more than enough money to pay 10 per cent. on the capital stock. Some of the directors think it will be more, but Treasurer Seeberger doesn't.

A District Meeting.
Mrs. C. G. Wood, Mrs. George Bright, Mrs. R. Tobey and Mrs. J. G. Imboden were in Assumption yesterday attending a district meeting of the missionary society of the First M. E. church. Mrs. Bradley, of India, delivered an address before the society, describing life and customs in that country where she has lived many years of her life.

Bad for Pans.
PANA, Ill., Nov. 24.—The train dispatcher's office and force of the Springfield division of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad, formerly the Ohio and Mississippi, will be moved from this city to Flora, Ill., Dec. 1. The change is the result of the recent change in the management of the road.

To-Night.
"The Spider and Fly," with its brilliant costumes, gorgeous scenery, pretty women, terpsichorean wonders and clever specialties will be here to-night.

A Town Meeting.
Supervisor Parker has called a meeting of taxpayers of the township at the high school building at 2 o'clock, the object being to explain to them all that is known so far of the suit brought by a Chicago firm for $5,000. It is claimed that the above amount is due the company for lumber furnished in building a railroad bridge across Lake Fork and in the construction of the Midland elevator. The people here were of the opinion that the elevator was a private concern, built by private money. Attorney Shipley has investigated the matter and does not see how the company can hope to win. The taxpayers should attend the meeting and get all the facts in the case possible. Maroa Times.

Judges of Law and Facts.
In Illinois and some other states there is an old law on the statute books to the effect that in criminal cases the jury are judges of the law as well as of the facts. Though not often quoted, once in a while a lawyer with a desperate case makes use of it. In one case the judge instructed the jury that it was to judge of the law as well as of the facts, but added that it was no judge of the law unless it was fully satisfied that it knew more law than the judge. An outrageous verdict was brought in, contrary to all instructions of the court, who felt called upon to rebuke the jury. At last one old farmer arose. "Judge," said he, "wherein do you judge the law as well as the facts?" "The law," was the response, "but I told you not to judge the law unless you were clearly satisfied that you knew the law better than I did." "Well, judge," answered the farmer, "he shifted his ground, we considered that point." Argonne.

Stage People.
The gross value of the personal property of the late Edwin Booth has been appraised at $602,672, and deducted debts, legacies and expenses, at $462,332. The late Charles W. Thomas left a personal estate, outside of the interest in the partnership of Charles H. Hoy, valued at $125,000. As yet no will has been found, but among his papers were two paid up insurance policies, one for $50,000 in favor of his father and one for $10,000, payable to his own order. Messrs. Hoyt and Thomas, besides the amusement business, had large interests in other enterprises, particularly in Omaha.

Gentlemen's Fine Shoes.
$2.50 for a Goodyear Welt shoe
$2.50 for a shoe with Hoyt's best oak sole leather (the highest priced and that goes into the bottoms of shoes to counters, inner and outer soles and heels)
$2.50 for a shoe, the upper of which Walker and Oakley's best calf skin
$2.50 for a shoe with a Bridgeway gore, which is the highest priced used. This gore took first premium at the World's Fair.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.
